

Viатris Appoints Rogerio Vivaldi Coelho, M.D., to Board of Directors

June 3, 2024

PITTSBURGH, June 3, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- Viatris Inc. (NASDAQ: VTRS), a global healthcare company, today announced that as part of its ongoing Board refreshment efforts, Rogerio Vivaldi Coelho, M.D., has been appointed as the newest member of its Board of Directors. Dr. Vivaldi will serve as a member of the recently reestablished Science and Technology Committee of the Board of Directors.

"We are pleased to welcome Dr. Vivaldi to our Board of Directors," said Melina Higgins, Chair of the Board, Viatris. "We believe his proven expertise and long track record of success will enhance the efforts of the Board across a range of areas, in particular with regards to our Science and Technology Committee. We expect his insights to be greatly beneficial to the Company's growth strategy as we further invest in our pipeline by adding highly innovative products with meaningful patient impact."

Dr. Vivaldi is the former President and Chief Executive Officer of Sigilon Therapeutics, Inc., a diabetes cell therapy company, where he also served as a member of the company's board of directors from 2018 until its acquisition by Eli Lilly and Company in 2023. Prior to joining Sigilon, Dr. Vivaldi served as Executive Vice President and Chief Global Therapeutics Officer at Bioerativ Inc., Chief Commercial Officer at Spark Therapeutics, and as Chief Executive Officer of Minerva Neurosciences, Inc. Earlier in his career, Dr. Vivaldi led Genzyme Corporation's rare disease business as President of both the rare disease business and the renal & endocrine group and served as Senior Vice President and General Manager of Genzyme's Latin America Group. During his tenure at Genzyme, he led the successful approval of more than 15 orphan products in more than 20 countries.

Dr. Vivaldi received a medical degree from the Universidade do Rio de Janeiro after which he completed a residency in endocrinology at the Universidade do Estado do Rio de Janeiro and a fellowship at Mount Sinai Hospital Center in New York in the department of genetics, focusing on Gaucher disease. In addition, Dr. Vivaldi holds an M.B.A. from COPPEAD, Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro.

"We are thrilled to have Dr. Vivaldi as a member of our Board," said Scott A. Smith, Chief Executive Officer, Viatris. "He is an industry leader with an excellent track record of leading the successful approval and launch of numerous innovative medicines for rare and orphan diseases and positioning global franchises for growth. I look forward to his contributions as we continue to lead the company into what we believe is an exciting future ahead."

Dr. Vivaldi commented, "I am excited to join Viatris, a company with the scale and scope to reach more than 1 billion patients each year and a clear strategy to increase the level of innovation across its pipeline as it seeks to further expand the patient impact and value the Company can deliver. Viatris' bold vision of providing access to high-quality medicines to patients globally, regardless of geography, deeply resonates with me as my entire career has been focused on pursuing this same goal. It is an honor to join the Viatris Board and I look forward to working alongside my fellow Directors and with the Executive Leadership Team as the company continues to build upon its very strong foundation."
